Chapter 1 by Glowy-Druglord

Her pleasure was becoming stanchied, Vali was no longer enjoying herself. Two Jedi Knights and two Padawans against one Sith Lord? She shook her head with distaste. The Jedi were worse after she left the Order, this is how they choose to fight? It was pathetic, how desperate they were. Her hand was a blur as it flicked down to her double bladed hilt, two purple blades shooting out with a hiss. She reached out behind her, forcing her dead apprentice's single bladed lightsaber into her left hand. She activated it with a hiss as well, the light from the blade illuminating her visor. These Jedi were going to pay for killing both of her apprentices, one way or another.

Vali had learned to fight with two double bladed lightsabers when she was an apprentice. She had stayed alive this long, survived seven battles. She could handle a pathetic Jedi ambush with ease. She settled on a bald Knight whom she knew as Duskus. She had been friends with him when she was young and ignorant, he would never get those emotions out of her ever again. She lashed out with her double bladed lightsaber, her purple meeting his green.

"You'll pay, Duskus," she hissed through her helmet. Her voice sounded deep and raspy through the speaker part of her helmet, but she didn't care. She sensed the Padawans leap at her and she blasted them backwards with the Force, sending them across the Temple.

Chapter 2 by Harry Potter

She strolled towards the second Jedi knight as he charged towards her. Intercepting strikes, but not striking quick enough as she waved her hand. He went flying towards the two padawans, knocking them over. Duskus pulled himself up slowly.

"let's have a fair fight" he growled.

He advanced on her whipping out a smoke grenade, throwing it at her feet. Vali chuckled as she sprang into the air, flying over his head. He turned around, just in time to see her lightsaber impale his gut as he fell down dead.
